Ron And The Mice Say:

“The easiest way to clean your house – ever!

There’s house cleaning and there’s house – WORK!”

Do you work at cleaning your house? Or are you working as well as cleaning?

Do you want more time, energy and money, but the housework just takes over?

Would you like to believe that there is a guaranteed way of removing all the stresses and strains of housecleaning so that all you do is the absolute minimum of necessary work?

Well, now there is!

Here we present the only way to get rid of all those jobs which leave you worn-out but make very little difference to the appearance of the place.

Make of our claims what you will, but cleaning a house is so easy that once you know really how to do it you’ll save yourself so much time, energy and money, you’ll be a new person altogether.

Who knows? You might get to like cleaning house so much, you’ll want to set up your own cleaning business. There is the way to independence and wealth.

We did it, so can you.

How about that then!”

The following pages will show you how you can get your house cleaning well ordered and done so quickly that you won’t believe it. Your friends won’t believe it either. You’ll have more time to yourself and your family, you’ll save money and more importantly, you won’t be worn out all the time. Even better, once you really have started doing it this way, you’ll be able to keep on top of it so much more easily. So you want a day out with the family? So what?

The housework can be easily done at any time later at your leisure and you won't have to work, any extra time at it. So you work full time? Here's how to get so clean all the time, you'll love walking into your house after work.

Remember what it's like coming home to smells and dirt?

Let Ron and his mates take you gently by the hand and lead you through the easiest way ever, to get your house cleaning done. It's a radical plan involving quite a bit of "so what?"

But first get the kettle on and make the tea...
